SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.SOURCE

1. Rentals for living space in recently nationalized urban dwellings will be based upon a system of points and upon the employment of the renter. The lowest rental will be charged for the seven square meters considered to be the amount of space necessary for a single individual. Rentals will be increased for living space in certain parts of Bucharest, for those houses with central heating, and those with parquet floors.
2. Rentals for living quarters occupied by state officials will be lower than the usual charge for such quarters. For persons belonging to privileged groups they will be as much as seventy-five percent below the charge to ordinary citizens.
